Wisdom's Observations on Fathers and Mothers and their Children

Proverbs

1. Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her. – 31: 28
2. The eye that mocks a father and scorns to obey a mother will be picked out by the ravens of the valley and eaten by the worms. – 30:17
3. Discipline your son, and he will give you rest; he will give delight to your heart. – 29:17
4. He who loves wisdom makes his father glad, but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth. – 29:3
5. Whoever robs his father or his mother and says, "That is no transgression," is a companion to a man who destroys. – 28:24
6. The one who keeps the law is a son with understanding, but a companion of gluttons shames his father. – 28:7
7. The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice; he who fathers a wise son will be glad in him. Let your father and mother be glad; let her who bore you rejoice. – 23:24-25
8. The righteous who walks in his integrity—blessed are his children after him! – 20:7
9. He who does violence to his father and chases away his mother is a son who brings shame and reproach. – 19:26
10. House and wealth are inherited from fathers, but a prudent wife is from the LORD. – 19:14
11. A foolish son is a grief to his father and bitterness to her who bore him. – 17:25
12. A wise son makes a glad father, but a foolish man despises his mother. – 15:20
13. In the fear of the LORD one has strong confidence, and his children will have a refuge. – 14:26
14. The wicked are overthrown and are no more, but the house of the righteous will stand. – 12:7
15. Whoever troubles his own household will inherit the wind, and the fool will be servant to the wise of heart. – 11:29

Janel Wydick

After being a part of this congregation for the past six years, today is Janel's last day with us before beginning her new job in Kansas. Be sure to wish her well! Janel has been a blessing to this congregation and will be missed greatly!

About Our Work

This will be a much anticipated and long-prayed-over week for us. Lord willing, Adam and Tabitha and their family will arrive and will begin to get involved in our lives. Let us see to it that we put them at ease among us, for they will be doing the work of the Lord, as we are seeking to do (cf. 1 Cor. 16:10). Our prayer is that this relationship may be a rich blessing to them as well as to us.

The activities of summer are upon us now. Bible camp sessions are beginning. Vacation season is in full swing and we have several families away from us right now. We also have a number of people we love who are dealing with serious health concerns or other problems. Please help us pay attention so that no one gets lost in the busy-ness. Use this season to build bridges of friendship among your brothers and sisters.

Wednesday evening we will conclude our study of Hebrews. What a great and always-needed blessing the "word of exhortation" is! Thanks to all of you who have taken part as we have worked our way through this profoundly meaningful epistle.

This past week we have read Lamentations, the funeral song over Jerusalem when the city had fallen to the destructive hands of the Babylonians. It is instructive that right in the middle of it some of the brightest and most hopeful words of the Bible are found (cf. 3:21-24). It is imperative that we bear in mind its lesson: "Let us test and examine our ways, and return to the LORD! Let us lift up our hearts and hands to God in heaven" (3:40-41).

HOPE AND ITS REWARDS

The happiest people you will ever meet are those who are on good terms with hope. They are confident that something good is just around the corner. They are actively engaged in helping others; they are optimistic about the future; they are filled with joyful enthusiasm.

Helping others we find ourselves. We see most clearly when we open our eyes to the hidden needs of a stranger; we hear most keenly when we attune our ears to the silent call of a friend. Service to others is what living is all about!

Optimism - The kind that springs from a deep faith - Always puts us on good terms with home. Be an eternal optimist, and shadows will fall behind you, cheerfulness will walk beside you, opportunity will rise in front of you, and doors will open for you! Practice dynamic optimism, and you will always spread the blessing of hope wherever you go.

Enthusiasm is the seed of hope. Samuel Goldwyn once said: "I have found enthusiasm for work and life to be the most precious ingredient in any recipe for successful living. And the greatest feature of this ingredient is that it is available to everyone - within himself." Call forth the sleeping giant of enthusiasm within you, and you will radiate hope; you will know the thrill of success; you will experience the joy of fulfillment.
