About Our Work

We wish everybody a great Memorial Day weekend – and we give thanks for our brothers and sisters in the Lord who remember that the first day of the week is the beginning of things and not the end of them. We get our bearings from it: the one who offered himself up for us all has been raised up as Lord of all. Our gratitude resets our priorities and leads us to believe that all will be well.

So now we've arrived at the official "start of summer." We hope there will be something in this season that brings some refreshing and renewal for yourself and your family – and us. We do know that it will bring a number of activities and opportunities to serve in our life together. Some of them are coming up right away, so here are some reminders.

In our Sunday morning service we are providing some important background for our Summer Series, which will begin on Wednesday evening, June 6. That series will focus on the "I am" claims of Christ that are found in the writings of John. Before we start, we want to be aware that there is powerful evidence that gives these claims credibility.

Justin Hatfield will be our guest speaker Sunday evening. We'll be given the opportunity to dwell on "The Beauty of God" as observed in both nature and mankind, and the service will be planned a bit differently. Justin always does a great job, and we appreciate his help. Be sure to be with us if you can.

This coming Wednesday we're finishing our two class series on The Prayers of God's People and Sticky Faith. Thanks to all of you who have been involved, and thanks for your comments.

Thanks so much to all of you who are helping to provide a meal Sunday for so many who have big needs in their lives. Both your generosity and your compassionate service is much appreciated.

Congratulations to our families who have celebrated big, happy events in their lives in the past several days – weddings! We are glad to have occasion to rejoice with those who rejoice.

Remember that we are observing our tenth anniversary in this facility next Sunday, June 3. Be sure to take notice of the special schedule for that day. Please invite family, friends, and former members who may have moved away to join us for that occasion.

– Bill McFarland

Just a note to let you know how grateful Pat and I are for your prayers, visits, phone calls, food and general concern during my recent surgery and recuperation. Your prayers are powerful. The surgery and recuperation have both been very successful so far. I look forward to being able to be back "out and around" in the near future. Thanks for everything. Jerry Milligan
